Visit of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother

The Chief Constable has great pleasure in promulgating in this General Order copies of letters he has received paying tribute to the most efficient way in which the members of this Force performed their duty in connection with the Royal visit to Cardiff on the 8th June 1966; -

- (i) Colonel Sir Cennydd Traherne, T.D.
(Lord Lieutenant of Glamorgan)

"I write at the command of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother to give you Her Majesty's warm appreciation of the excellence of the Police arrangements during The Queen Mother's visit last Wednesday.

It was a most successful occasion in every way. Sir Martin Gilliat has referred to the courteous and efficient co-operation of the Police authorities."

- (ii) The Rt. Hon. The Lord Mayor of Cardiff
(Alderman H. E. Edmonds, M.B.E., J.P.)

"I am taking this first opportunity following the visit of Her Majesty The Queen Mother, of writing to express my congratulations to you and your officers for the excellent arrangements made on that occasion.

The attention to detail resulted in a smooth-running programme which was much appreciated by Her Majesty and her attendants.

Please accept my thanks and convey them also to all your officers concerned."

- (iii) The Private Secretary to the Minister of State
Welsh Office (E. C. R. St. J. Vest, Esq.)

"The Minister of State has asked me to let you know how impressed he was by the efficiency and bearing of your force during the visit of H.M. Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother on Wednesday. Mr. Thomas feels sure that a great deal of the credit for the success of the visit must be given to you and your men.

The Minister of State has asked me to send you his thanks."

- (b)
- (iv) The Honorary Secretary, Welsh National Book of Remembrance Appeal (Major V. D. H. Elkington)

"I write to express to you my very sincere thanks for all the help which has been so kindly and willingly given to me during the organisation of the Royal visit on the 8th June 1966.

I am also most grateful for the very great assistance given to me to bring the Book of Remembrance from the Cathedral to the City Hall, and send my very sincere thanks to everyone concerned."

Commendations
